GRAND OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

Without doubt, Elmer Walters production of Lawrence Russell's great play, is one of the most elaborate ever given to any play of its class. The first act shows a typical depot with its trunks, moving trains, loafers and other characteristic equipment; the second is the church of the Holy Cross, one of the handsomest church settings ever made; the third act shows the exterior, and also the interior, of a country opera house with the curtain up and the performance in progress, a very unique and thrilling effect; the last act is the interior of a country town with its grandfather's clock, old fashioned fireplace and quaint trappings of a past itself that must not be overlooked, as it is positively the strongest of its kind in the dramatic field. A strong story, with an abundance of comedy and the most beautiful finale ever given to a play.
"The Millionaire Tramp" will appear at 8:30 o'clock.

RAILROAD MAN WILL DIE SOON

By Associated Press.
Cleveland, O., Oct. 24.—Hope for the recovery of Henry S. Storeis, general superintendent of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railway, was given up today. He suffered a stroke of apoplexy some time ago and gradual paralysis followed.

GAMBLERS' CASES DECIDED BY MASON

Fairmont, W. Va., Oct. 24.—Judge Mason last evening decided that the city of Fairmont has the power to punish gambling notwithstanding the fact that no such power is delegated by the city's charter. Judge Mason held that the city has the power by virtue of the special statute enacted at the last session of the legislature. The decision was elicited by the application for a writ of prohibition restraining Mayor Kinsey from acting further in thirteen gambling cases which are set for a hearing today. The defendants were arrested in an alleged gambling place Saturday night. The writ was refused.

HELP GOOD CAUSE

The female military drill to be given at the Grand opera house on Wednesday evening is for the benefit of Trinity M. E. church, on Ben street. It has taxed the congregation to their uttermost to meet certain obligations of late and in consequence one department of the church has been allowed to run very far behind and one hundred and fifty dollars is needed at once. To meet this as far as possible, we have made this venture. We appeal to our friends of both races to "come over to Macedonia and help us." At the same time we wish to thank the public for past favors.

JOHN M. BEANE,
Pastor Trinity M. E. Church.
